

MISSION

We promote a culture that develops health professionals who enrich the lives of all people and communities through interprofessional education, discovery, and care.