

MEDICAL INFORMATICS (MDIF)

MDIF 9101. Medical Informatics Selective. 80 Clock Hours.

Prerequisites: MS3 or MS4 Standing Principles of medical informatics and how electronic health record data are generated, aggregated, and presented will be introduced. Students will answer relevant clinical questions with the intention of optimizing quality of health care delivery, improving patient outcomes, and advancing population health in a value-based reimbursement paradigm.

Course Type: Clinical