

PEDODONTICS (PEDO)

---

PEDO 7192. Basic Pediatric Dentistry. 2 Credit Hours.

Introduction to basic restorative and preventive techniques on children. Includes lecture, preclinic technique, and clinical exposure to children.

Course Type: Lecture

PEDO 8191. Applied Pediatric Dentistry I. 1 Credit Hour.

Detailed instruction in restorative procedures, pulpal therapy, child management, trauma and diagnosis.

Course Type: Lecture

PEDO 8291. Clinical Pediatric Dentistry I. 1 Credit Hour.

The application of the knowledge and skills gained in Pedodontics 8752 to patients, including examination diagnosis treatment planning, preventive procedures, full range restorative services, arch-length maintenance and recall. Competency is expected to increase as the student progresses through this and subsequent courses.

Course Type: Clinical

PEDO 8391. Applied Pediatric Dentistry II. 1 Credit Hour.

Physiologic effects, indications, and dosages of drugs used for young patients to modify behavior and to manage oral infections; the etiology of periodontal disease in children; complex treatment planning for children.

Course Type: Lecture

PEDO 8491. Clinical Pediatric Dentistry II. 1 Credit Hour.

May be repeated; maximum credit 2 hours. A continuation of 9751.

Course Type: Clinical

PEDO 8990. Special Studies. 0-6 Credit Hours.

Prerequisites: None Special topics

Course Type: Lecture

PEDO 9105. Clinical Pediatric Dentistry III. 0.5 Credit Hours.

Prerequisites: None A continuation of PEDO 8491.

Course Type: Clinical

PEDO 9191. Clinical Pediatric Dentistry IV. 1 Credit Hour.

A continuation of 9764. Increased independence and improved clinical judgment expected.

Course Type: Clinical

PEDO 9205. Clinical Pediatric Dentistry V. 0.5 Credit Hours.

A continuation of 9766. Complete independence and sound clinical judgment expected.

Course Type: Clinical

PEDO 9915. Practice Teaching in Pedodontic Lab. 1.5 Credit Hours.

Practice teaching pedodontics second year students preclinical laboratory instruction. Under the instruction of the regular course director, the students will assist the second year students in the pedodontics preclinical laboratory.

Course Type: Lecture